Women's Golf host the Patsy Rendleman Invitational – Country Club of Salisbury

Just a little background information on the Patsy Rendleman Invitational Golf Tournament and the Richard Rendleman Invitational Golf Tournament. Both tournaments are played at the Country Club of Salisbury. The women's tournament is in the fall and the men's tournament is in the spring. The women's tournament is named in honor of Patsy Rendleman class of 1947. Mrs. Rendleman has been a member of the Catawba College Board of Trustees since 1975 and is an exemplary community leader and avid golfer. She was instrumental in starting the Catawba women's golf team in 1999. She has won 20 club championships, is a past president of the Women's Carolinas Golf Association, and also helped start the 1st Tee program at the Country Club of Salisbury. She has two career holes in one. This will be the 14th year for the Patsy Rendleman Invitational. The men's tournament is named in memory of Richard Rendleman. The Catawba MVP Award for Golf was named in honor of Richard Rendleman in 1988. Mr. Rendleman was an outstanding golfer for many years and recorded 11 career holes in one. Mr. Rendleman played collegiate golf at Catawba and was inducted into the Catawba Sports Hall of Fame in 1987. This will be the 26th year for the Richard Rendleman Invitational Tournament. Both Rendleman Invitational Golf Tournaments usually have around 25 teams playing in the tournament which serves as a fundraiser for both Catawba College golf teams.

Athletic Projects & Updates

HELP US TURN ON THE LIGHTS

Our Whitley Softball Field is the only sports field in our program without lights.

- All games are played in the afternoon, denying working parents the opportunity to support their children.
- Student athletes miss class in order to play these afternoon games.
- The afternoon class schedules of other students prevent them from attending games and supporting the program.
- Catawba is missing an opportunity to rent the field for community evening activities.

THE LADY INDIANS ARE A PROUD TRADITION AT CATAWBA

- The team and their coaching staff represent our campus with distinction.
- In recent years, the team has made three appearances in the NCAA Regional tournament and has won two South Atlantic Conference Tournament Championships.
- The team maintains a cumulative GPA of 3.6.

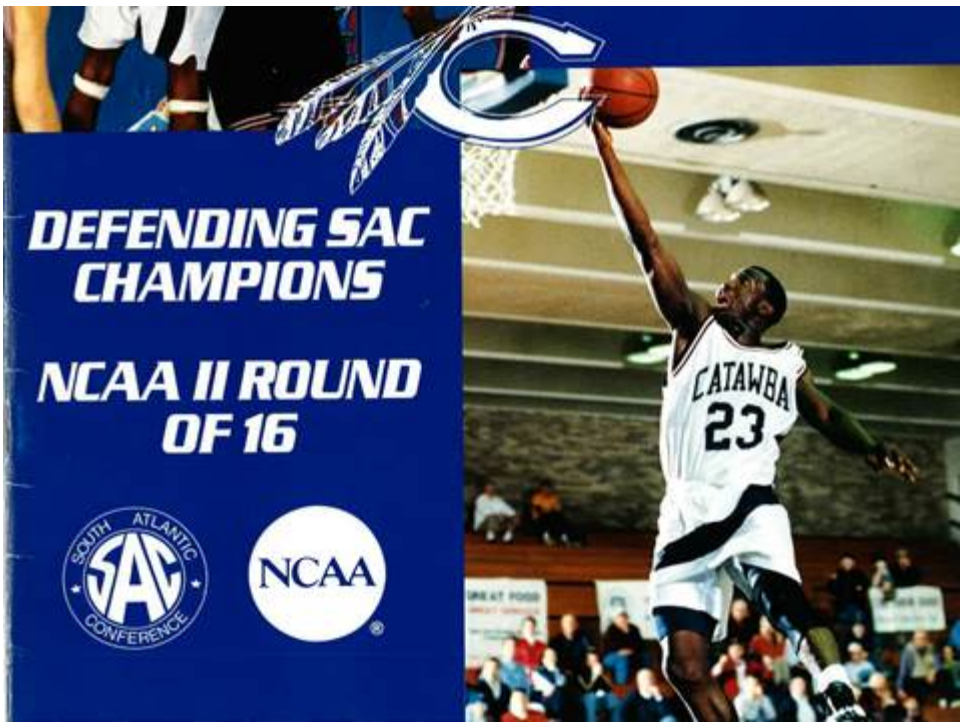

WE ARE ASKING FOR YOUR FINANCIAL HELP

We hope you will consider a gift to this project.
Donations may be paid over 3 years.

"Without lights, we have team members with parents who work and can't come and watch us play our afternoon games. It's very upsetting that we don't have their support at our games."
— Taylor Martin, Catawba Junior and Softball Team Member
